Conference City: Rome, Italy

Rome, the capital of Italy, is one of the most historic and culturally significant cities in the world. Often referred to as the “Eternal City,” Rome is renowned for its remarkable blend of ancient heritage and modern lifestyle. The city is home to iconic landmarks such as the Colosseum, Roman Forum, Pantheon, and the beautiful Trevi Fountain, each reflecting the grandeur of ancient Roman civilization.

Rome is also famous for being the center of the Catholic Church, as it hosts Vatican City, where visitors can explore St. Peter’s Basilica, the Vatican Museums, and the magnificent Sistine Chapel painted by Michelangelo. The city’s charming streets, elegant piazzas, and historic architecture make it a captivating destination for travellers and scholars alike.

In addition to its history and art, Rome offers world-class Italian cuisine, vibrant culture, and warm hospitality. With its rich heritage and inspiring atmosphere, Rome serves as an ideal destination for international conferences and global academic gatherings.

Why visit Rome from October 15-17, 2026?

Rome is a wonderful destination to visit from October 15-17, 2026, as the city enjoys pleasant autumn weather with mild temperatures and fewer crowds compared to the peak summer season. This makes it an ideal time to comfortably explore famous landmarks such as the Colosseum, Roman Forum, Trevi Fountain, and Vatican City.

During October, Rome’s streets, cafés, and historic piazzas offer a lively yet relaxed atmosphere. Visitors can enjoy authentic Italian cuisine, seasonal dishes, and local cultural experiences while walking through the city’s beautiful historic neighborhoods.

Attending a conference during this time also allows participants to combine professional networking with cultural exploration in one of the world’s most iconic and inspiring cities.
